

In the Name of All-Mighty Allah, The Most Gracious and the Most Merciful

I, Nidal Malik Hasan, am compelled to renounce any oaths of allegiances that require me to support/defend any man made constitution (like the Constitution of the United States) over the commandments mandated in Islam (Quran and Sunnah). The sovereignty of All-Mighty God must always prevail over the sovereignty of man. I therefore formally renounce my oath of office as well as any other implicit or explicit oaths I have made in the past that associate partners with All-Mighty God. This includes my oath of U.S. citizenship.

Nidal M. Hasan
Nidal M. Hasan, Jr.A

October 18, 2012

Do you have any closing statements?

I invite the world to read the book of All-Mighty Allah and decide for themselves if it is the truth from their Lord. My desire is to help people attain heaven by the mercy of their Lord. If I have made any mistakes I ask for forgiveness and understanding.

Question: Representatives of the Muslim community have criticized your actions on November 5 as going against the teachings of Islam because you broke your covenant (oath of office). Please comment.

To those of the Muslim community who have taken the U.S. Constitution as their Lord:

The wars in Afghanistan and Iraq are illegal and go against the U.S. Constitution. Many legal experts have said so. Their reasoning is sound.

Look it up! So if you are afraid to speak out against these wars because you swore allegiance to the Constitution, you may want to re-examine your silence in light of this new information.

Question: What was your relationship with Anwar Al-Awlaki?

He was my teacher, mentor, and friend. I hold him in high esteem for trying to educate Muslims about their duties to our Creator. May All-Mighty Allah accept his martyrdom. We are imperfect Muslims trying to establish the perfect religion of All-Mighty Allah as supreme on the land.

